The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of four systems of music. The first system shows the vocal line with the lyrics 'thoughts a - mong them roam,' and the piano accompaniment starting with a piano (p) dynamic. The second system begins with a forte (f) dynamic and the lyrics 'My rest - less thoughts a - mong them'. The piano part features a complex, flowing accompaniment. The third system continues the vocal line with 'roam. The night' and includes a 'Rev.' (Rehearsal) mark and an asterisk. The fourth system concludes with 'is dark and' and also includes a 'Rev.' mark and an asterisk. The piano accompaniment throughout is intricate, with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and includes several dynamic markings and articulation symbols.

THE THRUSH.

(E. R. Sill.)

Mrs. H. H. A. BEACH.

Allegro con leggerezza.

The musical score for "The Thrush" is written for voice and piano. It is in 6/8 time and consists of four systems of music. The vocal line is in the treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in the bass and treble clefs. The lyrics are: "The thrush sings high on the top - most bough; Low, loud - er, low a - gain, and now, and now He has changed his tree, you". The score includes various musical notations such as dynamics (pp, mf, p, cresc., dim.), articulation (accents, slurs), and performance instructions (Allegro con leggerezza). The piano part features a repeating eighth-note pattern in the left hand and a more complex melody in the right hand.
